Dear Members:

As one of your options for continued education and as a benefit to all our members, we have signed a learning partnership agreement with Columbia Southern University! Columbia Southern University is 100% online and is designed for the working, career individual with busy work and family life schedules. You can study at your own pace while continuing in your career.

As one of our members, you will receive a 10% discount on all of CSU's tuition rates, including a waived application fee and textbooks at no cost. Your spouse and children are also eligible to receive these benefits. In order to take advantage of the partnership discount and your waived application fee, click on this link then follow the prompts:

<http://www.columbiasouthern.edu/alliances/>.

When applying to CSU for the first time, click on the "Apply Now" tab then follow the prompts. After your application has been processed and you have been accepted as a CSU student, you will use the "Enroll Now" tab for each class you take. Going through these tabs on the Columbia Southern University web site will insure that you receive your partnership discount and benefits.

Feel free to contact me with any further question or concerns.

Sincerely,

Mark A. Elder
President
